

Mr Whoops' Juggling Muddle!

Can you help Mr Whoops to unjumble each word using the clues to help?

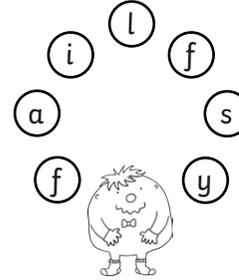

To sort a group of people or objects into categories or sets.

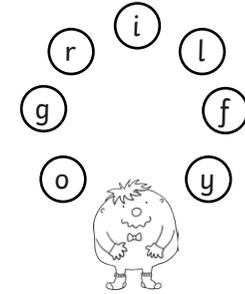

To increase the volume of a sound.

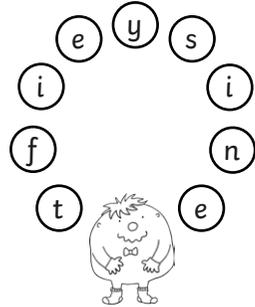

To deliberately change information or evidence.

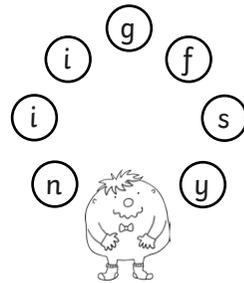

To praise or worship.

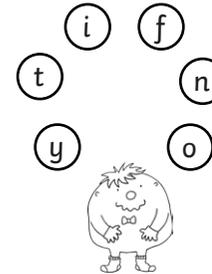

To make more intense.

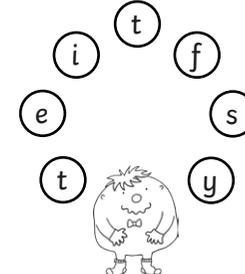

To be an indication of something.

To inform someone of something important.

To give evidence in a court of law.

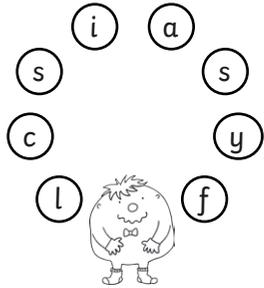

Challenge Task

Which two spelling words hasn't Mr. Whoops muddled up? Could you use each of them in separate sentences that contain direct speech?

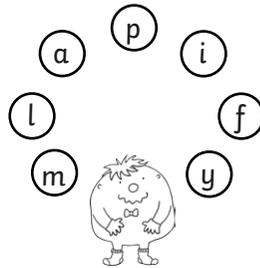

Mr Whoops' Juggling Muddle Answers

To sort a group of people or objects into categories or sets.

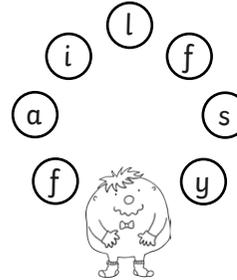

classify

To increase the volume of a sound.

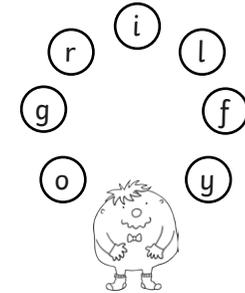

amplify

To deliberately change information or evidence.

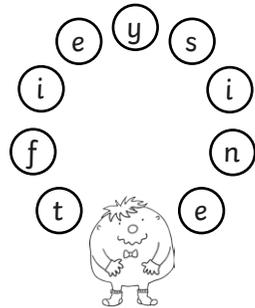

falsify

To praise or worship.

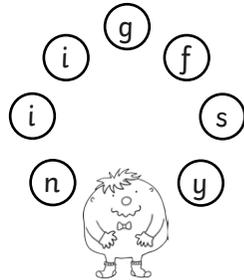

glorify

To make more intense.

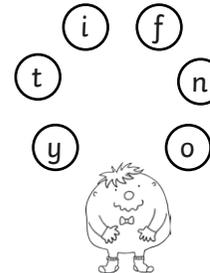

intensify

To be an indication of something.

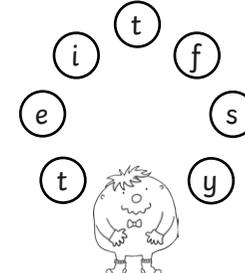

signify

To inform someone of something important.

notify

To give evidence in a court of law.

testify

Challenge Task

Which two spelling words hasn't Mr. Whoops muddled up? Could you use each of them in separate sentences that contain direct speech?
 Accept two relative cause sentences that contain 'solidify' and 'purify', e.g. The scientist explained, "Once it reaches a certain temperature, the substance will begin to solidify." and "We need to purify the water so that the children don't get ill," ordered the doctor.